THE EXPECTED SPANISH FLEET.

The long-looked-for fleet, the report that on the way to New York is of a piece with the story of a few days ago about the Spanish gunboats. The Spanish men-of-war or five Spanish vessels are understood to be on the way to Cuban waters, and may possibly call at a port on New York, but there is nothing whatever to which to hang a story of any importance. Spain has a number of men-of-war, and has been in the habit of sending them to Cuban waters from time to time, and it is not at all improbable that some of these will come to New York for coaling or supplies, instead of to New Orleans, as heretofore.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN VIRGINIA.

As to the political situation in Virginia, no one here is authority with the general policy of the Administration. Gen. Schofield, for one, has not, and cannot, control events of this kind, and, of course, he is not responsible for the action of the Republican Convention, which, against admonition from the present administration, has proceeded to nominate a ticket of its own, known, forsooth, as the "Conservative" ticket, and has put the name of Gen. Schofield at the head of it. The Republican Convention adopted a platform which, in effect, is a direct slap at the Administration, and, of course, the present administration, if it has any, will be compelled to take some steps to protect itself against the action of the Republican Convention, which, forsooth, assumes to speak for the Administration. It seems even the Rebel element in Virginia, which, in the same spirit, nominated Mr. Kimbrell and the Democrats, and, of course, Gen. Schofield, for Governor, and put a ticket of its own in the field, with a platform which, in effect, is a direct slap at the Democrats, and, of course, the Administration, which, forsooth, is supposed to be Democratic, and, of course, Gen. Schofield, who, forsooth, is a Democrat
